Anemone Strzelczyk

Managing Director - hmmh AG

Anemone Strzelczyk has been at hmmh since 1995 and, as Managing Director, is responsible for Corporate Services and the internal systems of the agency. In this role, she drives forward the development of the internal IT infrastructure and also deals with IT security and data protection.

Following on from her degree in English and Political Science, she has held various different management positions at hmmh. She has gained a good cross-functional understanding of all our processes and uses this knowledge to press ahead with the optimisation of our internal processes.

Thanks to her long standing experience as a Project Manager and as Director of Content Management and of Projects & Operations, Mone Strzelczyk is now well-placed to be able to conceive innovative ideas for the organisational development of the digital agency.
